The Honor Tradition

The Honor Tradition is a vital and unifying aspect of the Salem College community that encourages each member to ethical and responsible living. The Honor Code is upheld by the entire student body and stands on the principle of mutual respect. It is only as strong as the community that lives by it.

The Honor Tradition is long standing at Salem College and is highly respected by students, faculty, staff and administration. In keeping with its custom, each student assumes full responsibility for her actions in all phases of life at Salem. Such a tradition is only possible in a community that respects the individual and maintains a commitment to communication. Every student is responsible for encouraging other students to uphold the Honor Tradition.

The Honor Code

Salem College is a community of honor. I will show respect for my community by behaving with honesty, integrity and civility.

As a responsibility to my honor community:

I. I will show respect for my classmates and faculty by maintaining honesty in my academic work and refraining from cheating.

II. I will show respect for my community and peers by maintaining integrity and honesty in my daily life and refraining from stealing and lying.

III. I will show respect for faculty, staff and members of the administration by maintaining civility and refraining from disruptive and abusive language and behavior.

I will acknowledge responsibility and accept the consequences of my actions. In choosing Salem College, I pledge to uphold the principles of the Honor Code and will cherish and guard its tradition.
Financial Information

Pages 21-22. Fees to Special Fees, Change:

Resident students are expected to enroll for a full academic year and pay a comprehensive fee of $25,145, which includes the enrollment deposit, tuition, room and board, and laboratory and health service fees. The College expects full-year enrollment because it reserves facilities and executes contracts to provide for the needs of the student during the entire academic year. Payments are scheduled as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Enrollment deposit—(non-refundable)</th>
<th>$ 250</th>

<td>$25,145</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

In addition, students must pay a student government fee. The fee is $215, and subject to revision.

Resident students who meet requirements for graduation at the end of the first term or new students whose enrollment begins with the second term are charged a comprehensive fee of $12,573 which also entitles the student to participate in January Term. The January Term is designed to provide unique educational experiences, and the student may incur personal costs for travel or educational supplies. Students will not qualify for participation in a January Term trip if they have an overdue balance from a prior term, if their current balance is overdue, or if they were on the monthly payment plan and their payments are not current.

Please read the sections which contain information about installment payments and the refund policy.

Non-Resident Students

Non-resident students are full-time degree candidates who commute between their residences and the College. Non-resident students are charged a comprehensive fee of $16,275 for the academic year, which includes tuition, laboratory fees and health service fees. Payments are scheduled as follows:
Enrollment deposit—(non-refundable) $250
  returning students—April 1
  new students—May 1
First term payment—August 1 $8,012
Second term payment—January 2 $8,013
Total $16,275

Continuing Studies Student Fees
Continuing studies students are charged $860 per course credit and $970 per directed study course. Additional special music performance and physical education fees are described below. Continuing studies students should also consult publications of the continuing studies office for information about services and fees.

For physical education courses, continuing studies students are charged according to the duration of courses as follows:
  6 1/2 week course $98
  13 week course $191

Music Fees
Music majors and minors receive one hour of private instruction in music each week as part of the comprehensive fee. Additional private instruction is $250 per term for a one-hour lesson each week.

The arts management major who is concentrating in music does not pay an applied music fee for the first instrument. The student is charged one-half tuition for the second instrument of study, or $250.

Non-music majors and continuing studies students are charged $515 per term for private instruction in music for a one-hour lesson each week.

Special Fees
  Enrollment only for January Term $860
  Enrollment of continuing studies students for one-half credit course $430
  Auditing a course (reduced one-half for alumnae) $420
  Returned check fee $30
  Graduation fee $50
  Single room rate (Additional to regular room and board per term-non-refundable) $680

EDUC 311. Foundations of Special Education
Historical and philosophical overview of the education of learners with disabilities, including knowledge of how cultural, socio-economic, and family dynamics of exceptional students affect educational planning and delivery. Considerable emphasis to impact of IDEA, court cases, other relevant legislation; strategies for collaboration among families, school personnel, community agencies to accommodate students’ needs. Field experiences required.
Page 136. Delete Education courses 320 and 322. Add three new courses. New descriptions for courses are as follows (all are one course credit):

EDUC 320 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Learning Disabilities
Study of legal, historical and medical foundations that contributed to the field of learning disabilities with an emphasis on assessment, instructional strategies and delivery systems. A study of current trends, instructional strategies and IEP development will also be discussed. A detailed study of the inclusive or co-teaching service delivery model will be included in this class. Field experiences required.

EDUC 325 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with BED
Study of historical perspectives, characteristics, assessment methods and research-based instructional strategies for teaching BED students. A focus on highly structured classroom design and management along with curriculum based, functional assessment to guide instruction. Crisis management techniques, screening and evaluation procedures and IEP development will also be emphasized in the class. Field experiences required.

EDUC 327 Characteristics and Instructional Strategies for Students with Mild/Moderate Mental Disabilities
Study of historical perspectives, characteristics, assessment methods and research based instructional strategies for teaching mildly mentally disabled students. This class will emphasize accommodations, assisted technology, and functional academic areas of the standard course of study. Appropriate occupational preparation and independent living will also be discussed. Field experiences required.

Page 162. Under International Relations Major; delete French 120 from the European grouping options (no longer offered).

Pages 167-170. Addition of new major program: Music Education (B.M.)
The Bachelor of Music degree with a major in Music Education will prepare the student for licensure in teaching music (elementary through secondary). The degree requirements are completed through study in these areas: basic distribution (general education), music, music education, and professional education.
The basic distribution requirements for the B.M. with a major in Music Education are:

English  (same options as for B.A. or B.M. performance)  Two courses

Modern foreign language  Zero to three courses
  (proficiency through intermediate level)

Mathematics  One course

Lab science  One course

History, Social Science, Philosophy  Two courses
  (one must be PHIL/EDUC 248)

Physical Education  Two terms
  (Health & Wellness course plus one more term)

Salem Signature (100, 101, 200, 390)  One and one-half courses (College 270 requirement is satisfied by student teaching practicum)

In addition, the music education major must complete the following music and education requirements:

Music (similar to the B.M. in performance):
Four semesters of music theory (112, 211, 212, 315; some students may need to complete 111 first in order to qualify for 112); Principles of Musical Structure and Style (Music 117); three semesters of music history (118, 217, 218); four semesters of Class Piano (for voice majors) or four semesters of voice (for keyboard majors); seven semesters of ensemble (Music 50 or 51); seven semesters of performance/applied music in the student’s principal instrument (Music 20, 30, 40 in voice, piano, or organ); and the Intermediate Recital (Music 285) to be completed during the junior or senior year.

Music Education (see descriptions of new courses below):

Professional Education (EDUC) Core:
Educational Psychology (151), Computer Technology for Teachers (198), Modes of Knowing (see Philosophy 248 under BDR’s above), Special Education (302), Student Teaching Practicum (349).

Pages 170-176. Add the following new music courses that are part of the new Bachelor of Music in Music Education program:
263. Instrumental Techniques: Brass/Percussion  One-half course
264. Instrumental Techniques: Strings/Woodwinds  One-half course
These courses will focus on developing familiarity with the instrument families, as well as learning basic skills on the instruments sufficient to demonstrate and teach at beginning levels of proficiency. Students will also develop skills of transposition for instruments and the ability to perform simple instrument repairs.

278. Elementary Music Methods  One course
This course will examine current trends in music education, including studying various music curriculum and available resources. It will focus on preparation for classroom music teaching, as well as addressing issues related to classroom management and music technology. Students will develop their own personal philosophy of music education, as well as examine appropriate K-12 music curriculum using state standards, MENC standards and other resources. Membership in collegiate branch of MENC is required as well as attendance at the NC MEA conference. Field experience required. Prerequisite: admission to the teacher education program.

322. Arranging and Orchestration  One-half course
Instruction includes arranging and adapting music for various ensembles from a variety of sources to meet the needs and ability levels of school performing groups and classroom situations, including arranging for instruments. Prerequisite: Music 212.

330. Conducting and Rehearsal Techniques  One course
This course will develop basic conducting skills including baton techniques and score reading. Students will study appropriate and efficient rehearsal techniques. Emphasis is placed on accurate and musically expressive conducting. Open only to junior and senior music students.

331. Advanced Choral Literature and Conducting  One course
Instruction incorporates score preparation and the integration of analysis, style, performance practices, instrumentation, and expressive techniques. Some advanced choral methods will be examined. Emphasis will be placed on the study of large choral-orchestral works. Prerequisites: Music 315 and Music 330.

379. Secondary Choral Music Methods  One course
This course will address current practices in choral production techniques, including issues of changing voices, selecting appropriate literature, rehearsal planning, concert programming, program students will develop a catalog of age-appropriate choral repertoire from a variety of sources. The student will research issues of the arts in education and present a defense of music as a core curriculum subject in the standard K-12 educational system. Field experience required. Prerequisite: Music 330 and admission to the teacher education program.
